

Tenby

Male Choir

After two years of preparation, Tenby Male Choir is proud to release its first CD under musical director Ian “Wilbur” Williams.

Ian joined the choir in January 2007, and, building upon the work of his predecessors, has aimed to develop the choir's musical confidence and dynamic range of performance. The choristers are amateur enthusiasts, who meet twice a week, striving to perform to as high a standard as possible. Ian is aided in his endeavours by our excellent accompanist, Jill Williams (no relation). Together, they form an inspirational team. We hope that this CD is an adequate reflection of our joint efforts.
